

Article Overview

Outdoor fiber optic cables in the Czech Republic typically range from around 67 CZK to over 100 CZK per meter, depending on type, specifications, and supplier.

Retail Prices for Standard Cables

Retail suppliers like Alza.cz offer optical cables with prices starting at 67 CZK and up to 103 CZK per unit, depending on the product and available discounts . These prices generally apply to standard consumer-grade cables suitable for short outdoor runs or home networking. Discounts and promotional codes can further reduce the cost.

Industrial and Professional Cables

For professional or industrial-grade outdoor fiber optic cables, suppliers such as Kabelovna Decin Podmokly and OPTOKON provide a wide range of singlemode and multimode cables designed for harsh environments . Prices for these cables are typically quoted per meter and vary based on:

- o Cable type: singlemode (SM) or multimode (MM)
- o Number of fibers: 2, 4, 8, 12, or more
- o Armoring and UV/weather resistance for outdoor use
- o Connector type and pre-terminated assemblies

Exact pricing for industrial cables is usually available on request from the supplier, as it depends on the configuration and quantity ordered.

Online Electronics Distributors

Distributors like Mouser Czech Republic provide detailed catalogs with unit prices for fiber optic assemblies, including outdoor-rated cables . Prices vary by fiber type, diameter, and connector configuration, and bulk orders may reduce the per-meter cost.

Summary

- o Consumer-grade outdoor cables: 67-103 CZK per meter (Alza.cz)
- o Industrial/professional outdoor cables: Price varies; request a quote from suppliers like Kabelovna Decin Podmokly or OPTOKON
- o Factors affecting price: fiber type, number of fibers, armoring, weather resistance, and connectors
