

Preview

As of 2026, the main Croatian industrial sectors are food and beverage industry (24%), metal processing and machine industry, including vehicles (20%), coal coke and refined petroleum production (17%), chemical, pharmaceutical, rubber and plastics industry (11%), wood . As of 2026, the main Croatian industrial sectors are food and beverage industry (24%), metal processing and machine industry, including vehicles (20%), coal coke and refined petroleum production (17%), chemical, pharmaceutical, rubber and plastics industry (11%), wood . The industrial production of Croatia has historically played an important role in the country's economy. It has a longstanding tradition based since the 19th century on agriculture, forestry and mining. Many industrial branches developed at that time, like wood industry, food manufacturing, potash. Croatia's industrial production rose by 0. 8% year-on-year in March 2026, easing from a 1. Electricity, gas, steam and air-conditioning supply fell 6. Croatia's industry still moves on hard numbers, from EUR2,800 average monthly industrial wages to 17. 8% of GDP tied to manufacturing. This comprehensive guide aims to provide valuable insights into the key sectors that drive the country's economy. In addition to an analysis of the main indicators for the selected sectors of the Croatian economy, there is a comparative analysis wit the EU and a. Croatian industry is concentrated in the following activities: textiles, wood, steel industry, aluminium and food industry. The most common export activities are.

Concerts in Zagreb in 2026 Find tickets to all live music, concerts, tour dates and festivals in and around Zagreb. Currently there are 50 upcoming events.

These issues must be considered seriously and addressed in the new industrial strategy of the Republic of Croatia. Since lagging technology is the main issue,

When it comes to economic growth and development, understanding the biggest industries in Croatia is crucial. This comprehensive guide aims to provide valuable insights into the key sectors that drive

Croatia's industry still moves on hard numbers, from EUR2,800 average monthly industrial wages to 17.8% of GDP tied to manufacturing. Yet behind that stability, employment shifts sharply,

Industrial production is a process that results in finished industrial products and services, it drives exports, contributes to the development of industrial infrastructure and other branches of the

The average nominal gross wage paid in December 2023 in the beverage industry was 1,747 euros, which was 7.8 percent above the average of the economy and 21.5 percent above the average of the Top Croatian universities offer dedicated bachelor's and master's courses in their curricula for industrial and engineering sciences and cover topics such as mechatronic design, electro-mechanics, robotics

_ Introduction The Sector Analyses publication reports on the conditions, trends, and business events in selected sectors of the Croatian economy: energy - renewable energy sources, chemical industry,

Industrial production in Croatia has an important place in the country's total production. The most prominent forms are manufacturing, the Browse 24 Industrial companies in Croatia, including 24 with websites, 22 with employee estimates, 23 with contact signals. Featured companies include Enikon, Hrid, Exor Technical Services.

Thousands of commercial real estate listings for sale in Croatia. Find opportunities in stores, offices, warehouses and industrial spaces for sale on Indomio! Define the criteria for the property you are

In Croatia, industrial production measures the output of businesses integrated in industrial sector of the economy such as manufacturing, mining, and utilities.

Croatia's industrial producer prices rose 7.0% on the year in April, following an increase of 3.2% in March, the statistical office said.

Industrial production in Croatia surged by 7.5% year-on-year in January 2025, the strongest rise since June 2021, following a 5.3% advance in the previous month.

Croatian National Bank, 1927 Initial industrialization began in the 1830s and in the following decades the construction of big industrial enterprises took place.

Our in-depth market data report on Croatia Industry. Explore verified statistics and the latest research.

Web: <https://www.millstraining.co.za>

