

Article Overview

The wholesale price of optical fiber cables in Lithuania typically ranges around $11,000 per ton for imports, with export prices reaching $34,000 per ton, reflecting strong market growth and high-quality product demand.

Market Pricing Overview

In 2024, the average import price for optical fiber cables in Lithuania was approximately $11,216 per ton, remaining relatively stable compared to previous years, while export prices surged to $34,193 per ton, marking a historic peak and reflecting strong demand and technological advancements in telecommunications infrastructure . These figures provide a benchmark for wholesale pricing, though specific DML cable variants may vary depending on specifications, fiber count, and performance standards.

Wholesale Suppliers in Lithuania

Several distributors and manufacturers offer bulk optical fiber cables in Lithuania:

- o Optilix OU: Supplies high-quality optical fiber cable materials with EU-based warehousing in Klaipeda, Lithuania, and can arrange delivery to client warehouses. They represent leading producers and cater to Eastern Europe and CIS markets .
- o go4WorldBusiness Lithuania Suppliers: Offers verified wholesale suppliers and manufacturers providing bulk optical fiber cables with competitive pricing and discounts for large orders .
- o Mouser Europe and DigiKey: While primarily retail-focused, they provide pricing per unit and bulk order options for fiber optic cables, which can serve as a reference for smaller-scale procurement .

Factors Affecting Price

Wholesale prices for DML optical fiber cables in Lithuania can vary based on:

- o Cable type and specifications (single-mode vs. multi-mode, fiber count, active vs. passive components)
- o Order volume (bulk discounts are common)
- o Supplier and origin (European vs. Asian manufacturers)
- o Market trends (global demand, technological upgrades, and digital infrastructure expansion)

Practical Guidance

For accurate pricing of active DML optical fiber cables, it is recommended to:

Lithuanian wholesale price of active optical fiber cable DML

- o Contact local distributors like Optilix OU for quotations based on required specifications and volume.
- o Compare bulk offers from verified suppliers on platforms like go4WorldBusiness.
- o Consider import/export price trends as a benchmark for negotiation, noting that import prices have been stable around $11,000 per ton, while export prices reflect premium quality and demand . This approach ensures competitive pricing while securing high-quality optical fiber cables suitable for telecommunications and data center applications in Lithuania.
