

Which optical cable manufacturers are based in Cambodia

Article Overview

Key optical cable manufacturers in Cambodia include WCFO (Cambodia) Co., Ltd. and ENC W&W Co., Ltd., both based in Phnom Penh.

WCFO (Cambodia) Co., Ltd.

Founded in 2020, WCFO (Cambodia) Co., Ltd. is a prominent manufacturer of fiber optic cables in Cambodia, producing a wide range of products for both domestic and international markets, including Asia, Australia, Europe, and the Americas . Their offerings include high-performance fiber optic connectivity solutions such as optical racks, patch panels, attenuators, adaptors, splitters, WDM solutions, and various standard and custom cable assemblies with connector types like LC, SC, E2000, and MPO . The company emphasizes manufacturing flexibility and cost efficiency through expertise in fiber connectivity, sheet metal, and injection-molded plastic designs .

ENC W&W Co., Ltd.

ENC W&W Co., Ltd., also based in Phnom Penh, primarily distributes high-quality fiber optic cables sourced from top-tier Chinese manufacturers . While they focus on distribution rather than in-house production, they play a significant role in supplying optical cables for state grid projects across the ASEAN region . The company provides technical support, tailored solutions, and efficient delivery services, making it a key player in Cambodia's optical cable market .

Industry Overview

Cambodia exported $22.7 million worth of optical fibers and cables in 2024, with major destinations including the United States, Czechia, and Australia . The country also imported $24.8 million, mainly from China, Vietnam, and the United States . As of 2025, there are 16 cable companies operating in Cambodia, with a significant concentration in Phnom Penh . This indicates a growing local industry capable of serving both domestic and international markets. These companies represent the main local sources for optical cables in Cambodia, offering both manufacturing and distribution capabilities to meet diverse connectivity needs.
